FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How much do meals cost?

Current meal prices for all schools can be found on the Concord Food Service website at www.concord.k12.in.us/food-service.

How do I apply for free or reduced-price meals?

If your family is eligible for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or Medicaid, you automatically qualify for free or reduced-price meals. Alternatively, you can apply for an income-based eligibility. More information is available on the Indiana Department of Education website. An application can be found on the My MealTime website: www.mymealtime.com.

What are you serving on a daily basis?

BREAKFAST: All students are encouraged to eat breakfast at school each day. Students must take at least three of the offered items at breakfast and one of the three items must be a fruit or vegetable.

LUNCH: Each day, your child is offered a lunch containing the following: meat or meat alternate, grain, fruit, vegetable and of course, milk! Out of the five food groups your student is offered, s/he must choose at least 3 food groups for his/her meal. One of the food groups must be a fruit or vegetable.

What if my child doesn't like the menu items offered for the day?

Students may always choose from alternative meals. All of our buildings have at least two options for vegetables and fruits and there is always at least one alternative sandwich option.

What if my child is allergic to peanuts, shellfish, dairy, etc.?

Our food service staff goes above and beyond to accommodate food allergies. There will always be another option available for students who have food allergies.

What if my child's lunch account runs out of funds and I forget to deposit more?

Your student will receive a courtesy meal and you will receive a reminder. All children will be provided a meal each day.

What are the rules for visiting my child at lunch?

Guests may not bring in restaurant food to be eaten in the school cafeteria. Adult meals are available for purchase. All students must remain in the cafeteria with food or drinks. Contact your student's school for more information about meal times.
